Dear Mr. White,

I am sorry not to have written sooner about the Old Magnets you have for the Indian gentleman. Can you keep them a little longer he is trying to arrange about payment for them, he is not allowed to send such a large sum out of his country and is trying to get his friends in this country to help him with payment, but he says they earn so little it is difficult. I am wondering if we could send a few at a time.

Please keep them if you can a little longer. We may be able to sort it out. He is so genuine about all this, I want to help if I can.

With kind regards,
yours sincerely,
Edith Hood
